

Ohio's Woodland Birds:

Basic Identification and Attracting them to Your Woodlot

Small Woodlots Matter

Join us on Wednesday, April 26, at 6:30 p.m. at the Franklin Soil and Water Conservation District Headquarters to learn about birds that use woodlots in central Ohio, how to enhance your property for birds and management tips for attracting specific types of birds.

When: Wednesday, April 26, 6:30–8 p.m.
**Free event.*

Where: Franklin SWCD
1404 Goodale Boulevard, Suite 100
Columbus, OH 43212

Directions: From I-670, take the Grandview Ave. exit and head north on Grandview Ave 0.4 miles, at the Goodale Blvd intersection, turn east onto Goodale Blvd and go 0.2 miles. The Franklin SWCD office is on the north side of the street just past Wyman Woods Park.

Please RSVP; event is limited to 40 participants. Indoor presentation.

RSVP online at: <https://odnrwoodlandbirds.eventbrite.com/>, or contact:
Jason Van Houten at 614-265-6703, Jason.VanHouten@dnr.state.oh.us

This meeting is associated with a group of small woodlot owners interested in learning how to care for their woods.

